

Living and Working in Germany Germany for Expatriates

A vacation in Germany is one thing – working and living here is something else.

Why did somebody say ›Hello‹ and ›Good-bye‹ to me in the elevator? Is it ›Dr. Müller-Lüdenscheid‹ or just ›Kurt‹? What is the difference between ›Mahlzeit‹ and ›Guten Appetit‹?

Expatriates will go through an intensive period of changes and transitions in their personal and working lives in Germany.

In our workshops and coachings we consider all aspects and experiences not only of the expatriates but also of their families. We will support them in coming to terms with their new culture and environment.

Workshops and Coaching Germany for Expatriates

Our workshops have a duration of 2-3 days and can consist of anywhere between 6-15 participants. We offer a wide variety of interactive methods and provide follow-ups as needed.

Our topics are: German culture, history and the modern German society · Business communication – e.g. working in projects, meetings, presentations · Cultural integration · Building and developing business relationships and networks · Practical tips

In our coachings we offer process-oriented accompaniment for individuals and teams.

Our proven format can be adapted to your individual requirements. We would be happy to provide you with further information.
